John Patrick Shanley has written more than two dozen plays, as well as numerous screenplays, and is one of the few authors who have won a Pulitzer Prize (for the play "Doubt"), a Tony Award (for "Doubt"), and an Academy Award (for the film "Moonstruck"). "Outside Mullingar" was written as a tribute to his ancestral roots and was inspired by his first visit to his relatives in Ireland in the 1990s.

BIOGRAPHIES

Cast (Alphabetically)

DAVE CLARK (Tony Reilly) I've been working as a Comedy Magician, Ventriloquist, and Actor throughout Central New England for 55 years. I've performed on stage at various theaters including Worcester Foothills Theater, WCLOC, High Tor Theater, The Bradley Playhouse, Stageloft Rep, and of course Pilgrim Soul and Calliope Productions among others. My most recent production was this play, which only ran one weekend right at the start of the COVID Pandemic. It's great to be back again with the original cast in a different venue. My favorite roles have included Frank McCourt in "A Couple of Blaguards" opposite Matt Carr, Sidney Lipton in "God's Favorite" opposite Bill Pullman, and Ebenezer Scrooge in "Scrooge and Marley, A Christmas Carol." The most challenging thing about playing Tony in this production was facing the fact that I did not have to put on old age makeup. The nice part was finally getting to work with Susan Nest, after knowing her for over 50 years. It's also been great meeting and working with Bernie and Cherry for the first time, especially my fight scenes with Cherry. What I hope the audience walks away with from this production is a smile.

BERNARD GALVIN (Anthony Reilly) I am thrilled to be returning in my favorite production "Outside Mullingar." It's been a long three-year hiatus since the journey began. I am excited to be working alongside such a talented cast and crew. I have worked on previous productions with Pilgrim Soul, such as "Big Maggie," "Da," and "Beyond Therapy." I would really like the audience to enjoy this roller coaster of family drama, a quirky comedy about two lost souls finding true love. I would thank my family for their love and support.

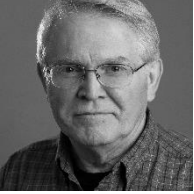

SUSAN NEST (Aoife Muldoon) I have performed and engaged in backstage work in all manner of theatre-- from musicals to children's theatre to dinner theatre to murder mysteries to touring shows to readings to improvisational theatre to educational theatre to regional theatre. I have enjoyed both the variety and challenges provided by all the genres and the learning opportunities both on and off stage. My favorite production is always the one I am working on. COVID took a toll on many things in 2020, including "Outside Mullingar," which began and ended during one weekend, cutting short a four-week run. We are all thrilled to be working with Calliope Productions on this show and getting the band back together again. Our character relationships have only deepened in the intervening years.

CHERRY LYNN ZINGER (Rosemary Muldoon) Like anyone, I'm a mass of contradictions: raised in the tropics but live in New England, homebody but world traveler, high tech career but device Luddite. I seek variety in acting too: most recently "The Laramie Project," and "Arsenic and Old Lace," with past favorites like "Urinetown" and "As You Like It." "Outside Mullingar" adds to that an agile mix of light and dark, with so many words leaving so much unsaid and so much assumed. It reminds me that there are all kinds of reasons that people won't ask or won't say, so one needs to try hard to listen and to understand and to accept.

Production Team

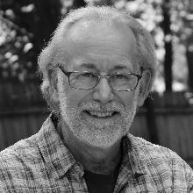

MATTHEW J. CARR (Director) is the founder and artistic director of Pilgrim Soul Productions and is proud to collaborate with Dave Ludt and Calliope Productions to present John Patrick Shanley's delightful Irish comedy. As usual, he is blessed with a cast and crew of talented, dedicated individuals who give themselves to the work with passion and creativity. In addition, Matt sincerely thanks Dave and Calliope's board of directors for their support in bringing this production to this stage. As always, he is grateful to his wife, Linda, and his family for their never-ending patience and support.

CYNTHIA A. NARDELLA CIULLO (Stage Manager) has been dramatic for many years, 15 of them with Pilgrim Soul Productions. She has enjoyed each show with which she has been associated in the capacity of stage manager, assistant stage manager, costume designer, and actor. During her 30 plus years as an educator, she directed and adapted many of Shakespeare's plays; a book containing these plays is available on Amazon, under the pen name CC Beechum.

DAVE LUDT (Sets, Light, and Sound) is a co-founder of Calliope Productions, as well as its president and artistic director. Since Calliope's founding in 1982, he has produced, and/or directed, performed in, run lights and sound, and designed & built sets for more than 275 Calliope shows. He is grateful for the support of Calliope's Board and the patience and understanding of his significant other, Lynne Swenson.

DOUG BELLER (Stage Crew) has had many roles in Calliope's productions. With over 40 shows under his belt, he's run the lights and sound board, been a lawyer, an undertaker (twice!), a trolley conductor, a mayor, and a dead guy. He has been part of the ensemble many times, and the stage manager for quite a few shows ranging from farces to musicals. He's grateful for his family because they tolerate all of this theatre madness!
